WALCOTT STILL CHAMPION. Colored Fighter Knocks Charlie Hagher Out in Fifth Roup

Boston, March 11.—Before a large crowd at the Criterion A. C. to-night Joe Walcott successfully defended his title of welter. weight champion against Charlie Haghey of Lowell. The two were to have met for fifteen rounds at 148 pounds, but Walcott was the winner in the fifth round. Although Haghey has been heralded as an exception ally dangerous man owing to his showing recently against Young Peter Jackson, Walcott was a decided favorite in the Billy Dailey of Boston was the referee Walcott was in fine condition and Haghey looked as though he had trained faithfully. Haghey did not seem to be afraid of the negro, for he sailed in viciously, landing negro, for he sailed in viciously, landing a stiff blow on the head. He received a sharp counter on the body in return which made him wince. They exchanged a number of hard knocks, both doing excellent work. Before the round was over Haghey got in several wicked alashes to the body and face. Walcott rushed his man all over the ring and dropped the Lowell scapper with a vicious right swing on the jaw. Haghey got up smartly but when the round closed he was weak and tottering.

Haghey was wild in the third. He went for Walcott, but the latter sidestepped, pummelling Haghey at every chance. The Lowell man did considerable sprinting for the remainder of the round, and in this manner succeeded in avoiding punishment. Although Haghey used all his efforts he could not locate the colored pugilist.

The last round was lively for a while. Haghey made a violent effort to stem the tide, but without avail. Two stiff lefts on the body made him weak and he clinched to get away from several well-aimed lunges.

However, Haghey managed to stagger Walcott with a stiff left on the face. Walcott soon recovered and fought for all he was worth. Haghey tried to clinch, but the champion shock him off easily.

After planting a heavy left on the wind Walcottt swung his right straight from the shoulder. The blow landed clean on Haghey's jaw and he went down in a heap, completely knocked out. The time of the round was I minute and 45 seconds.

TROTTING MATCH ON JULY 4 David Bonner Stakeholder for Major Delmar-Lord Derby Contest.

There was a large gathering of horsemer at the Murray Hill Hotel last night to see the agreement signed and the money posted for the match race between the trotters, Major Delmar, 2:05%, and Lord Derby, 2:05%. George Spear, the trainer of Lord Derby, acted for the owner, E. E. Smathers, as that gentleman is now in Calfornia. A. P. McDonald, who trained and drove Major McDonald, who trained and drove Major Delmar to his record, appeared as the backer and principal for that horse.

All the points at difference had been practically agreed upon before the meeting, so that there was but little to do aside from selecting a stakeholder and having the articles. ticles of agreement drawn and signed and the first cash deposit of $1,000 posted with the stakeholder. McDonald suggested that David Bonner be made the stakeholder. This was acceptable to Mr. Smathers's repre-David Bonner be made the stakeholder. This was acceptable to Mr. Smathers's representative, and Mr. Bonner, who was present, consented to serve. The articles of agreement as finally revised and signed provide, first, that the race shall be at mile heats, two in three, in harness, and shall be trotted on July 4 next, good day and track.

In case of bad weather the race is to be postponed until the first good day and track. The distance is to be at eighty yards, irrespective of any changes that may be made in the rules of the National Trotting Association prior to the race. The race is to be held over the track of the association offering the best inducements, and the stakeholder is authorized to receive bids up to May 1. The principals are then to decide on the most advantageous offer.

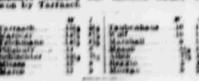

Each principal is to select one judge and the association over whose track the race is trotted may select the third judge, but he must be acceptable to both principals otherwise the two judges already selected may select the third fudge.

One thousand dollars forfeit money was deposited by each party with the stakeholder, and the agreement provided that the same amount must be posted by each thirty days before the race, and the balance of $3,000 must be deposited on the night preceding the race. The stakes and all added money are to go to the winner. In case of default in posting future forfeits by either party, the sum already posted is forfeited to the other side.

BIG BALL DEAL COMPLETED.

BAN JOHNSON'S ANNOUNCEMENT PROMISED FOR TO-NIGHT.

American League President Says All Detalls Will Be Made Public Without Pall and That the New Club Will Be Owned Exclusively by New Yorkers.

After an all-day session at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday, the American League mag-nates adjourned until 7 o'clock to-night. Incidentally they completed all remaining details of the big baseball deal which has been hanging fire for months and President Johnson made the positive announcement that he would make public everything at 9 o'clock to-night.

"I know I have made many promises in regard to this matter," said Johnson last night, "which I have been compelled, through force of circumstances, to break, but this time there will be no slip-up, as we have cleaned up the deal completely. I shall make the local-locked for announcement make the long-looked-for announcement at 9 o'clock to-morrow night, when I will make public the location of the grounds, the name of the president of the new club, and possibly those of the stockholders and will review the workings of the deal from the time we first made arrangements to come into this city. In other words I will make good all that I have promised the baseball public of the metropolis.

"I do not eare to say at this moment whether we have located on Manhattan Island or in The Bronx, but that will be public property to-morrow night. I will say, however, that the new club will be owned entirely by New York men. The American League will not hold a dollar's worth of the stock, and I am plad of it, because there might be a cry of syndicate ball. The new club will be incorporated under the laws of the State of New York and when that has been done the officers will be elected forthwith. The club will be capitalized at not more than $100,000 and there will not be a raft of stockholders. One of them owns the grounds and will be heavily of them owns the grounds and will be heavily interested. The new club assumes everything. It will bear the entire expense of building the grounds, will assume the salary list of the team, which has been signed and will also carry a long-term lease of the property It will let all the contracts, and work on the grounds will begin next Monday without fail. We have about seven weeks in which to get everything in shape for the opening of the season here on April 30, and the contractors have guaranteed to complete the work inside of that time limit.

"The new club has already posted a large forfeit with the American League in return for a franchise and as a guarantee of good faith, and assoon as it has been incorporated the president will sign the ten years' agreement, which binds the American League clubs together and which has eight years to run. These people have been ready with their money from the start. We offered to supply the capital needed to build the grounds, but they refused it at all times. They are men of wealth and influence and have acted squarely with us in every respect. This has been almost difficult proposition to handle because of the many angles to be met, but we have been patient and we feel that we have accomplished a gigantic undertaking.

"I decline to talk about a question of intersecting streets, as that does not cut much of a figure with the new club. As far as political influence is concerned. I may say that it has not interfered with us at all. We have received fair treatment at the hands of those we have been dealing with and wish to thank the New York public for its long indulgence. All of the American League men will remain in town until after. I make my announcement to-morrow night. Then they will go home, tired but contented. The American League men sid that they would be at Lenox avenue and 14sth street, extending north two blocks on the Harlem River bank, while other sites already mentioned in The Sun were also the subjects of gossip. Another Meeting to Discuss Army-Navy Football.

Annapolis, March 11.—At a meeting of the Navy Athletic Association to-night the following committee was selected to meet in Philadelphia on the coming Saturday a like council of the Army Athletic Association to arrange the details for this season's football game. This will make the second meeting the two committees have had, they having failed at their first conference to reach any conclusion in regard to the adoption of an elicibility code applying to athletes of both West Point and Annapolis. This subject will be the most important one to be discussed at the meeting, and unless some satisfactory conclusions can be reached by the two committees it is not likely that the annual football contests will be continued.

AMATEUR GOLF SUGGESTIONS.

NEW PLANS PAVORED FOR CHAM-PIONSHIP.

ntiment Leans Toward the Method Supported by Walter J. Travis—Feeling That Executive Committee of the U. S. G. A. Should Seek Club Spinlons.

Suggestions as to the best method of playing the amateur championship are coming in rapidly in response to the circular sent out on March 7 by the United States Golf Association committee. Most of the suggestions are in support of one of the four methods are in support of one of the four methods outlined in the circular, but some of the players have brought forward entirely new plans. There is still a strong feeling that the executive committee should have asked the opinion of the club committees, instead of asking only a certain number of players to express their individual views. So far as an hearmed the executive committee and the committee and the committee of the committee can be learned, the executive committee had intended to settle the matter without taking the public into its confidence. The sugges-tions made by the players, is pursuance of the new policy, it has developed, are not to be given out. The players are not so secretive, and it may be said that aside from the matchand it may be said that aside from the match-play fad itst the sentiment favors Method I of the circular, a thirty-six hole qualifying round, with thirty-two to fight out at thirty-six hole match play rounds, the system last used in 1901. Walter J. Travis is an earnest supporter of this method, as he said in THE SUN on March 4. "In answer to the circular I have sent a clipping of my interview in THE SUN," said Mr. Travis yesterday, "with a few additional remarks. One remark was that as the effort is above all to determine who is the best player, although the committee does not player, although the committee does not dwell on this point, it might be well to cater only to players of class, so as to obviate as far as possible the presence of those who have no likelihood of even qualifying. This, have no likelihood of even qualifying. This, I think, would be better than going to the extreme to stimulate the entries of all sorts of players. It does not stimulate the game to make the championship a scramble.

"I am of the opinion that eighteen-hole match play rounds between players of almost equal rank do not afford any conclusive test. Take, for instance, the last British championship, who believes that Mr. Hutchings, or Mr. Fry, the runner-up, is as good as Messrs. Ball, Hilton or Maxwell? If the matches had been of thirty-six holes instead of eighteen holes I believe Mr. Hutchings never would have won out. holes I believe Mr. Hutchings never would have won out.

"An improvement on the medal-play qualifying round would be to weed out at the eighteenth hole all players whose scores are more than eighteen holes from the leader, provided there also are at least thirty-two intermediate scores. It would hasten the play and act as a deterrent to ambitious duffers. Scorers, too, could be done gway with. If players were put on their honor there would not be the slightest fear of any wrong scores being turned in."

The thirty-six hole medal-play competition open to amateurs and professionals at the Country Club of Augusta, Ga., lest Saturday, was won by the club's professional, David Osilvie. He did a 77 in the morning, which was within three of the record for the links; but required 83 in the afternoon, finishing with 163. Braid was second with 168, and Mr. W. A. Adriance scored 177.

It is considered a foregone conclusion that the Mayor elect will either issue an edict against the Sunday races or will put so high a license on the sport as to be prohibitive. With a higher license, but one not too high, the Sunday racing will be continued, but it will not be started as early as formerly by a month; that is, not until the last of May.

If the Sunday racing is prevented by an ordinance or a prohibitive license fee, it is probable that electric lights will be put in and racing run one night a week instead of on Sundays. In fact, so likely does it seem that the Sunday races will be barred that the manager already is calculating the cost of lighting.

FRANLEY SAYS BILL WILL PASS. Belleves That the Legislature Will Soon Legalize Boxing in This State.

Senator James J. Frawley says that he believes his bill legalizing boxing in the State will pass both houses of the Legislature at Albany and will be signed by the Governor in a few days. The bill provides for limited round contests under the control of a State Boxing Commission with power to licerse regularly incorporated athletic clubs, owning or leasing their clubhouses for not less than one year. There will be a State tax of 5 percent, of the gross receipts of each contest. The contests will be conducted under the supervision of a referee and two judges together with regularly appointed physicians who will examine all contestants before they are allowed to enter the ring. There will be State inspectors of boxing who will work in the interests of the commission and will look after the State tax. The commission will have the power to banish from the sport all fakirs and other objectional characters who may be regarded as a detriment to the came Senator Fraview says that he has sounded the members of the Legislature and has met with much encouragement. regularly incorporated athletic clubs, owning

The World's Best Spring Medicine

The blood plays an important part in our physical economy, and, in a liquid state, constitutes a large part of the en-tire body. Unhealthy conditions of the life stream affect seriously all parts of the human system. It seems unneces-when vitality is low, when the appetite fails, when oppressed by tired feelings and heaviness, when headaches and insomnia make our days miserable, when itchings, skin troubles and eruptions cause alarm, that the condition of the blood calls for prompt attention.

If you have delayed the work of purifying the blood in the past months, you cannot with safety allow the spring time to rid yourself of perils and dangers. In the spring season Paine's Celery Compound effectively removes all impurities from the blood, so that the vital fluid goes on its health-restoring mission to heart, lungs, brain and all other parts, making you vigorous and healthy and stronger than ever before. Mr. T. F. McCarthy, Roxbury, Mass., Post Office Money Order Clerk, and a prominent member of the Knights of Columbus, writes thus:—

"I wish to express my appreciation of your most valuable remedy, Paine's Celery Compound. I had been troubled with a violent fitching on hands and feet, coupled with swelling, all due to impure blood. After using Paine's Celery Compound three days, the itching and swelling completely disappeared, and after use of one full bottle, I find myself in good health." to rid yourself of perils and dangers. #### FOX HOUNDS POISONED. Seven Dead at Meadow Brook-Tainted

HEMPSTEAD, March 11 .- The entire pack of American foxhounds, used in the Meadow Brook live fox hunts while Ralpha N. Ellis was master, have been poisoned, and seven have died up to to-day, while the others are still in a critical condition. Mr. Ellis, who has just returned from Florida, said to-day concerning the matter:

"I cannot account for the poisoning in any other way than that the horse meat that has been fed to the dogs was tainted. Since I retired from the mastership of the Meadow Brook Club this pack, which is my at the Hill Top Farm, near Huntington. We buy up disabled horses to feed to the dogs and probably some horse had some disease of the blood which tainted the disease of the blood which tainted the flesh. I do not believe any one has wilfully poisoned the pack."

The hounds are valued at $50 each and the pack consisted of fifty-four hounds.

When Foxhali Keene took the Meadow Brook Club mastership, he immediately announced that American foxhounds would be tabooed and only the English breed used for both fox and drag hunts. Mr. Keene is now in England and when he returns in July will bring with him a pack of the fanciest-bred foxhounds he can procure. Until then the Meadow Brook huntsmen will have to be satisfied with drag hunts.

Greater New York Irish A. C. Games.

The athletic games, burling and lootball matches of the Greater New York Irish A. A., in Madison Square jarden next Saturday night, promise to be one of the most interesting indoor carnivals ever held in this city. A prodigious entry list has been received for the events, including the crack athletes of the country, collegiste and otherwise. Harvard, Yale and Cornell will meet in a special relay race, and a ratting contest will no doubt result. A notable feature of the night's sport will be the ten-inile A. A. #### FROM AIKEN TO WESTBURY. Trainer Glesson Says Mr. Whitney's Horses Are in Good Condition.

HEMPSTEAD, March 11. - The horses of William C. Whitney's string that have wintered at Aiken will arrive at his Westbury stables next Saturday. Jack Gleason, the assistant trainer, says the entire string is in good con-dition, which will be good news to racegoers who remember the hard luck Mr. Whitney had a year ago, when an epidemic of influenza and oneumonia swept through the Westbury stables, putting all the horses back in their training. Mr. Whitney blamed the glass sides of the stables for the epidemic, and early last fall he took them down, and the alterations he began then are now about completed.

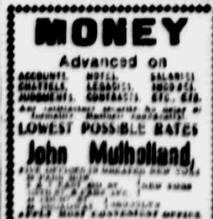

Only the yearlings and a few two-year-olds have been at Westbury this winter, and these are in excellent condition. Mr. Whitney's latest importations, which arrived here on Morday, are three premising looking two-year-olds named Baronet, Jubilgo and Coronation.
